

Student/Resident Programming Highlights:

CLINICAL CONFERENCES FOR RESIDENTS, PSYCHOLOGY AND SOCIAL WORK TRAINEES, AND STUDENTS, PRESENTED BY APsAA FELLOWS

Thursday, February 15, 2018, 4:30 – 7:00 PM #1: TRANSITIONAL OBJECTS AT THE END OF LIFE	Saturday, February 17, 2018, 9:00 – 11:30 AM #2: A JOURNEY FROM ANGER TO LOVE: WORKING IN AN INTENSIVE SHORT-TERM PSYCHODYNAMIC THERAPY (ISTDP) MODEL
Sunday, February 18, 2018, 9:00 – 11:30 AM #3: DYNAMICS OF COERCION WHEN ANOREXIA NERVOSA INVADES THE MEDICAL SERVICE

ARTIST/SCHOLAR-IN-RESIDENCE: SERIES OF SEMINARS ON RACISM

Thursday, February 15, 2018, 7:00 – 9:00 PM #1: “WHITE SHOES”: PHOTOGRAPHER NONA FAUSTINE AND THE LEGACY OF SLAVERY	Saturday, February 17, 2018, 2:00 – 3:30 PM #3: VOLNEY GAY: “ON THE PLEASURES OF OWNING PERSONS: THE HIDDEN FACE OF AMERICAN SLAVERY”
--	---

Consider joining APsAA’s Student/Resident Associates. Student/Resident Associates are comprised of medical students, psychiatric residents, social work, psychology, graduate or undergraduate students of all academic disciplines. (Trainees in post-graduate programs can join the Psychotherapist Associates). Benefits include a discounted meeting registration fee, a free subscription to APsAA’s quarterly magazine, The American Psychoanalyst and a reduced subscription rate to the Journal of the American Psychoanalytic Association (JAPA). To become a Student/Resident Associate please visit apsa.org/associate-programs. Click here to join the Student/Resident Associates.